

Abstract

The present invention concerns an antibody for the detection and/or quantification and/or isolation of basophils and/or mast cells and/or of the precursor cells of basophils and/or mast cells and/or of a surface structure of said cells, binding of the antibody occurring to that surface structure of the cells to which can bind the antibody with the designation 97A6, produced and released by hybridoma cells that were deposited in accordance with the Budapest Treaty on February 12, 1997 under number DSM ACC 2297 at Deutsche Sammlung von Mikroorganismen und Zellkulturen GmbH (DSMZ).

T.09560.1.16.1